

Supplemental Terms for Epic 180 Day Free Offer

In addition to the Terms, the following terms shall apply to the Epic 180 Day Free Offer.

1. This license is provided by Us to You at no cost for the purpose of supporting You during the COVID-19 crisis through the Epic 180 Day Free Offer as further detailed and limited below.
2. This offer is only valid for new customers and requires a separate, active license for com.epic.rover (the 'Epic Rover App'). You must arrange for such license directly with Epic Systems Corporation.
3. The provision of the Scandit Software and Services is governed by the clauses applicable to a free test period within the Terms (Sections 1, 4.1, 4.8, 4.9, 4.16, 4.19 - 4.26, 6.2, 7 and 8), as modified herein.
4. We grant you the right to use Barcode Scanner SDK Native within the Epic Rover App for one hundred and eighty (180) days. Notwithstanding the Terms, the license granted hereunder allows You to deploy the Software for both testing and for production (regular business) use.
5. In addition to the clauses within the Terms applicable to any free test period, clauses 3.1.2 (Your Responsibilities relating to the Software Component) and 3.3 (Reporting Requirements) shall also apply to this free license.
6. You are using the version of the Software licensed hereunder without analytics. This Software transmits Usage Data. Usage Data includes the IP address of devices running the Software licensed hereunder. This IP address is not associated with any health care information and is subsequently anonymized. We will not transmit the data decoded by the Software (e.g., data encoded in a barcode will not be transmitted).
7. The parties acknowledge and agree that Usage Data shall not include any protected health information ('PHI') as defined under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act ('HIPAA'). If any PHI is inadvertently collected by Our Software and/ or Services it will promptly be returned or destroyed.
